

*VILLA KATY, COLUMBIA
CHILDREN'S MINISTRY BENEFIT
April 25, 2009
Navilleton Activity Center
Floyds Knobs, Indiana*

Edgar and Julie (Kiesler) Zuluaga, missionaries supported by LADO, have been working in Villa Katy, Colombia for three years with a community of displaced families. Because of violence and political turmoil, these families were forced to leave their homes, everything they owned, and flee to safety. Our dream is to restore them, bringing a message of hope, love, and a future. Over the past several years, we have worked to meet the needs of these families in areas such as medical care, clothes, general hygiene items, pure water, and school supplies. Yet our desire is to go a step further. We would like to educate and equip these adults with tools to help them sustain their families and provide them a better way of life. How? We want to buy a farm and build a multi-purpose ministry center in order to provide jobs, as well as skill training. As the land produces, it will provide the food needed to sustain the children's ministry that offers children a meal daily.
